Thailand Research Fund and its Roles in International Research Collaboration:

The Thailand Research Fund (TRF) is a major research funding agency. Its main objectives are:

(1) to support research projects of importance to national development
(2) to foster professional researchers and build a strong research community
(3) to promote the dissemination of research results and their practical utilization and
(4) to mobilize public and private funds for research activities.

TRF supports international research collaboration through the Royal Golden Jubilee PhD Program and the International Research Network Program.
