

UNT INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL GRANT FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

OVERVIEW

The UNT International Travel Grant supports the professional development and global scholarship of UNT graduate students. The UNT International Travel Grant is administered by UNT International.

ELIGIBILITY

- UNT graduate students who are awarded a Toulouse Graduate School Travel Grant (TGS Travel Grant) are eligible for the UNT International Travel Grant.
- UNT graduate students must meet the eligibility requirements for the TGS Travel Grant, be awarded a TGS Travel Grant, and be participating in a professional meeting abroad.

AWARD AMOUNT

- The award amount ranges from $0 to $500.
- The UNT International Travel Grant will be awarded to eligible students as funding remains available.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- UNT graduate students are not required to submit a separate application for the UNT International Travel Grant.
- The Toulouse Graduate School provides UNT International with applicant information for all UNT graduate students who are awarded a TGS Travel Grant to participate in a professional meeting abroad.

NOTIFICATION PROCESS

- UNT International will provide an award notification letter to all students who are awarded the UNT International Travel Grant.
- The award notification letter is emailed to students after students are notified by the Toulouse Graduate School regarding the TGS Travel Grant.

AWARD DISTRIBUTION

- UNT graduate students are required to submit a reimbursement form to the Toulouse Graduate School upon return from the professional meeting abroad.
- After UNT International receives a copy of the reimbursement form from the Toulouse Graduate School, UNT International will notify Student Financial Aid and Scholarships to issue a refund to the student, which is processed by Student Accounting and University Cashiering Services.
