

CHARN USWACHOKE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND

SPRING 2024 CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

OVERVIEW

The Charn Uswachoke International Development Fund (Charn Fund) is a generous endowment from Mr. Charn Uswachoke, an alumnus from Thailand. The long-term goal of the endowment is to contribute to international impact in UNT's classrooms through curriculum innovation.

The Charn Fund supports faculty initiatives that prepare internationally competent UNT graduates within the following curricular and co-curricular internationalization categories:

- a. study abroad site visits
- b. global speakers: as part of the curriculum
- c. international co-curricular programs.

The Spring 2024 Call for Applications supports projects that will occur in summer 2024 and/or fall 2024.

The online application is available at Charn Fund Application. The application deadline is March 1, 2024.

For additional information, please contact Dr. Amanda Bennett at amanda.white@unt.edu.

CURRICULAR AND CO-CURRICULAR INTERNATIONALIZATION CATEGORIES

Study Abroad Site Visits

The Charn Fund supports faculty to undertake a study abroad site visit to develop a new faculty-led study abroad program. Preference will be given to new faculty leaders, underrepresented disciplines, and/or underrepresented locations. Applicants must meet with the UNT Study Abroad Director (Amy Shenberger) to discuss the proposed study abroad program and site visit prior to submitting a Charn Fund application.

- Maximum Amount per Award: $3,000
- Allowable Expenses: (a) airfare, (b) accommodations, (c) meals, and/or (d) local transportation for one (1) faculty member per proposal to participate in a short site visit (approximately 2-5 days)

Global Speakers: As Part of the Curriculum

The Charn Fund supports faculty hosting a visiting global speaker to serve as a guest lecturer for a UNT class/give a presentation to UNT faculty/students. The visiting global speaker should provide international insights and global expertise about the academic discipline(s) and may include academics or professionals from the U.S. or abroad. Preference will be given to applications that include multiple lectures/presentations by the visiting global speaker.

- Maximum Amount per Award: $2,500
- Allowable Expenses: (a) airfare, (b) accommodations, (c) meals, and/or (d) local transportation for the global speaker

International Co-Curricular Programs

The Charn Fund supports faculty organizing an international co-curricular program that enhances an existing UNT course by offering international co-curricular programs that explore the culture and society of another country/multiple countries. International Co-Curricular Programs may involve bringing a specialist or outside group to UNT. Preference will be given to applications that involve the participation of students from multiple departments.

- Maximum Amount per Award: $2,500
- Allowable Expenses: (a) airfare for a visiting specialist/group, (b) accommodations for a visiting specialist/group, (c) meals for the program, and/or (d) venue rental expenses.

REVIEW CRITERIA

Charn Fund applications are reviewed by a committee of UNT faculty and staff. The following criteria is used when evaluating applications:

- Impacts a wide range of students within a specific academic discipline and/or across academic disciplines
- Contributes to enhancing the global competency of UNT's students
- Demonstrates curriculum innovations
- Contributes to international impact in UNT's classrooms
- Promotes comprehensive internationalization of UNT's classrooms and curriculum.

Preference will be given to applications that demonstrate college/department cost-share.

While prior Charn Fund recipients are eligible to apply, priority will be given to individuals who have not previously received a Charn Fund and/or to applications that include new initiatives.

AWARD INFORMATION

The number of awards, award amounts, and use of funds is at the discretion of the Vice Provost and Dean of International Affairs.

Please refer to the program categories for the list of allowable expenses.

The Charn Fund does not support the following use of award funds:

- Salaries or operating expenses for personnel, projects, or offices
- Student wages, stipends, travel support, scholarships, or other items

All Charn Fund project expenditures must be reconciled before the end of the project period (December 31, 2024). Any remaining funds will not carryforward past the project period. In the event the project cannot be started/completed during the project period due to any circumstance, you must inform Dr. Amanda Bennett at Amanda.White@unt.edu.

IMPORTANT DATES

- |                     |  |
|---------------------|--|
| • March 1, 2024     | Application Deadline                         |
| • December 31, 2024 | Project Report Due and End of Project Period |