

UNT INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL GRANT FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS: 2018-2019

OVERVIEW

The UNT International Travel Grant supports the professional development and global scholarship of UNT graduate students. The UNT International Travel Grant is administered by UNT International.

ELIGIBILITY

- UNT graduate students who are awarded a Toulouse Graduate School Travel Grant (TGS Travel Grant) will be considered for the UNT International Travel Grant.
- To be considered for the UNT International Travel Grant, UNT graduate students must meet the following eligibility requirements: (a) be awarded a TGS Travel Grant and (b) present research or a creative activity at a professional meeting/venue abroad.

AWARD AMOUNT

- The award amount ranges from $0 to $500.
- The UNT International Travel Grant is awarded in the fall, spring, and summer, as funding remains available.
- All award decisions are made at the discretion of the Vice Provost and Dean of International Affairs.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- UNT graduate students are not required to submit a separate application for the UNT International Travel Grant.
- UNT graduate students are required to indicate in their Toulouse Graduate School Travel Grant application that they would like to be considered for the UNT International Travel Grant.

NOTIFICATION PROCESS

- UNT International will provide an award notification letter to all students who are awarded the UNT International Travel Grant.

AWARD DISTRIBUTION

- UNT graduate students are required to submit a reimbursement form to the Toulouse Graduate School upon return from the professional meeting abroad.
- After UNT International receives a copy of the reimbursement form from the Toulouse Graduate School, UNT International will notify Student Financial Aid and Scholarships to begin processing your UNT International Travel Grant stipend award. The stipend award is processed by Student Financial Services and placed on your student account.
