To Whom It May Concern:

This is to confirm that The University of North Texas (School Code DAL214F0061000, EV Program P-1-03874) resumed on-campus instruction. On-campus instruction will continue for Spring 2022, with instruction beginning on January 18th, 2022.

Instruction will be delivered on-campus through in-person instruction, hybrid instructional format, and synchronous audio-visual format, with on-line and remote learning options as well.

For courses which require practicum experience, hands-on instruction, or laboratory instruction, oversight will be modified to maintain proper social distancing and follow CDC guidelines.

The University of North Texas will ensure proper adherence to Student Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) requirements for enrollment at the time of SEVIS Registration for F-1 Students.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding a student's status at UNT, eligibility to enroll for Spring 2022 or validity of the I-20/DS-2019 in their possession please contact internationaladvising@unt.edu.

Any assistance with visa issuance or entry to the U.S. in time for Spring 2022 is greatly appreciated, including an expedited or emergency visa interview, if necessary.
